Who We Are...

as United Church Women

► Church women who, with courage and consecration, declare their Purpose to be:

> "To unite church women in their allegiance to their Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, through a program looking to their integration in the total life and work of the church and to the building of a world Christian community."

► Church women—Protestant, Evangelical, Orthodox—in local communities, who work together through their denominations and through local Councils of Church Women.

► Church women, who work together through state Councils of Church Women.

WORSHIP

What We Do ... as United Church Women

IN THE ECUMENICAL MOVEMENT

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

MAY FELLOWSHIP DAY

WORLD COMMUNITY DAY

We work for — CHRISTIAN WORLD MISSIONS

To further the interdenominational mission program by strengthening the understanding and support of home and foreign missions.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER
(First Friday in Lent)
Unites peoples of the world in a bond of prayer and Christian fellowship. The offering in the United States is for missions at home and abroad.

We work for — CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

To prepare church women to understand the social and economic causes of human need, and to bring about a more Christian social order.

MAY FELLOWSHIP DAY
(First Friday in May)
Promotes Christian fellowship in local communities. Its program gives emphasis to social, economic and racial problems whose solutions require united action. The offering is for the united work of church women.

We work for — CHRISTIAN WORLD RELATIONS

To unite church women in an increased understanding of the world and its needs and of the United Nations, resulting in Christian planning and action.

WORLD COMMUNITY DAY
(First Friday in November)
Develops an understanding of responsibility for building a world community. The offering is used to relieve suffering and need in other countries and to work toward world peace with justice and freedom.
